

Published on robertparker.com, 06/30/22

2020 Binger Scharlachberg Riesling trocken

Rating: 90+

The 2020 Binger Scharlachberg Riesling trocken is clear, pure and flinty on the nose that reveals a fine intensity and iodine background. Ripe, lush and piquant in its purity and freshness, this is an elegant, straightforward and bone-dry but also juicy Riesling with grip and tension. Still youthful, this 2020 will benefit from further bottle age. Drink Date 2024 – 2036

2020 Binger Kirchberg Riesling trocken

Rating: 89+

The 2020 Binger Kirchberg Riesling trocken offers a clear and a refined bouquet and shows ripe, lush and elegant fruit with fine mineral grip and stimulating salinity. The wine is round and intense and already a pleasure to drink.

2020 Binger Riesling Quarzit trocken

Rating: 88

The 2020 Binger Riesling trocken Quarzit is clear, pure and stony in the slightly iodine-scented nose. Round and fresh on the palate, this is light but structured, lemon-fresh and stimulating dry Riesling with grip and a straight character. Drink Date 2022 – 2030