

Published on jamessuckling.com, 06/22/21

Riffel Chardonnay Rheinhessen Réserve trocken 2019

Score: 93 Points

Tasting absolutely blind, I would confidently identify this as a Chablis Premier Cru! In fact, it is another example of German winemakers' growing confidence with chardonnay. At once smoky, lemony and chalky with a wonderful combination of concentration and vibrancy, this has a long, very clean finish. From organically grown grapes with Ecovin certification. Drink or hold.

Riffel Pinot Noir Rheinhessen Binger Rosé trocken 2020

Score: 91 Points

A very attractive, medium-bodied dry rosé with delicate floral and red-fruit aromas. Some real elegance here, the lively acidity pushing the cool and bright finish a long way out there. Nice, salty touch that makes this stand out of the crowd. From organically grown grapes with Ecovin certification. Drink now. Screw cap.

Riffel Scheurebe Sauvignon Blanc Rheinhessen trocken 2020

Score: 90 Points

Why be serious if this aromatic and expressive dry white is in your glass? Tons of grapefruit and cassis here, but also flint and smoke notes, the medium-bodied palate frankly refreshing. Very bright, citrus and flint finish. From organically grown grapes with Ecovin certification. Drink now. Screw cap.

Riffel Silvaner Rheinhessen trocken 2020

Score: 90 Points

The spritziness and lemony freshness of this dry silvaner gives it an unusually lively personality for this grape, which is famous for roundness. Medium-bodied with a precisely balanced palate, the finish crisp and refreshing. Good length, too! From organically grown grapes with Ecovin certification. Drink now. Screw cap.

Riffel Pinot Noir Rheinhessen Bubenstück Réserve 2019

Score: 89 Points

I like the serious tannin structure of this youthful, medium-bodied pinot noir. Nice red-berry aromas with a touch of watermelon. Plenty of drive from the moderately dry tannins and lively acidity. Falls a bit flat at the finish. From organically grown grapes with Ecovin certification. Drink or hold.

Riffel Rheinhessen Rosé trocken 2020

Score: 89 Points

A very fresh dry rosé with delicate strawberry fruit. Sleek and spritzy with very crisp acidity. From organically grown grapes with Ecovin certification. Drink now. Screw cap.

Riffel Riesling Deutschland Alkoholfreier Wein Zero

Score: 88 Points

For an alcohol-free wine this has some nice apple and smoke character on the nose, plus some body on the fresh, medium-dry palate. Refreshing, lemony finish. From organically grown grapes. Drink now. Screw cap.