2017 Riesling Rheinhessen Scharlachberg trocken

Score: 96 Points

A real extract bomb, yet also so fine and delicate that it seems to dance on the palate. This great dry riesling is still very young, but already has a seductive, nectarine aroma. Totally focussed on the very long, stony finish. From organically grown grapes. Drink or hold.

2017 Riesling Rheinhessen Scharlachberg Spätlese

2017 Riesling Rheinhessen Scharlachberg Kabinett

Score: 93 Points

Who says Rheinhessen cannot make excellent Kabinett wines? Wonderful interplay of white peaches and pomegranate with racy acidity, then a long, very clean finish. Where are those spicy prawns? From organically grown grapes. Drink now. Screw cap.

2017 Riesling Rheinhessen Binger Quarzit trocken

Score: 93 Points

This marries lovely peachy fruit and juiciness with vibrant and polished acidity, enormous freshness and a long crystalline finish. The package tastes much lighter than its 13 % alc on the palate. A very flexible food wine. From organically grown grapes. Drink or hold.

2016 Chardonnay Rheinhessen Réserve trocken

Score: 93 Points

Plenty of mini bananas, caramelized pears, plus some hazelnuts and a touch of vanilla on the nose. Then a lot of depth on the medium-bodied palate and a really long, fresh mineral finish. From organically grown grapes. Drink or hold.

2016 Silvaner Rheinhessen Réserve Trocken

Score: 93 Points

A complex nose of white flowers, bread dough and dried pear on this dry silvaner, which manages to have serious depth, including some tannin, and a long, herbal finish, in spite of having just 12 per cent alcohol. Expands considerably with aeration, suggesting this will be better from 2019.

2017 Riesling Rheinhessen trocken

Score: 92 Points

Brimming with peaches, this is a stunning dry riesling for the humble category and modest price. Juicy and substantial with near-perfect balance of vibrant acidity and ripeness. Long, clean finish. From organically grown grapes. Drink now. Screw cap.

2015 Pinot Noir Rheinhessen Réserve trocken

Score: 92 Points

Brimming with notes of black pepper and roasted red bell pepper, this is a striking pinot noir with plenty of dry tannins that are already well integrated on the rather powerful and dry palate. From organically grown grapes. Good aging potential. Drink in 2019 or hold.

2016 Chardonnay & Weissburgunder Rheinhessen Binger Tonmergel trocken

Score: 91 Points

Tons of candied-orange and lemon character, married to a full, creamy body. Low acidity in the Rhine context, but that doesn't matter, because there's so much life at the finish. Fermented for more than a year, hence the late release. From organically grown grapes. Drink or hold. Screw cap.

2017 Silvaner Rheinhessen Binger Quarzit trocken

Score: 91 Points

With its mirabelle and lemon character, as well as floral notes, this is an exceptional silvaner. Ripe and creamy on the palate, but there's a healthy structure beneath, which comes through ever more clearly at the long, complex finish. From organically grown grapes. Drink or hold. Screw cap.

2017 Grauburgunder Rheinhessen trocken

Score: 90 Points

Full of ripe mango and with lively acidity, this is a delightful dry pinot gris with nice creaminess at the finish. From organically grown grapes. Drink now. Screw cap.

2017 Weissburgunder Rheinhessen trocken

Score: 90 Points

Full fruit-salad aromas and a happy balance of fruit, medium-body and freshness, making this a very attractive dry pinot blanc. From organically grown grapes. Drink now. Screw cap.

2017 Scheurebe Rheinhessen trocken

Score: 88 Points

Ripe, generous and succulent at the front, but lacks a little freshness at the finish. Drink now.
